

DEATH OF REPRESENTATIVE JAMES R. MANN.

The PRESIDENT pro tempore. The Chair lays before the Senate the resolutions of the House of Representatives. Without objection, the resolutions will not be reread, inasmuch as they have already been read in the hearing of the Senate.

Mr. McKINLEY. Mr. President, it becomes my sad duty to announce to the Senate the death of Hon. JAMES R. MANN, of Illinois, late a Member of the House of Representatives and a former colleague of many of the present Members of this body.

After completing a continuous service of 25 years in the House of Representatives, years filled with honest, studious, and constructive accomplishment, he passed away on the evening of November 30.

JAMES R. MANN moved with strength to the surest end, worked with poise to the safest point. He held an abiding faith in enduring things. He was industrious without asking that the strokes be made of record. Honest, patriotic, sincere, his adversaries could not terrify him by assault nor friends change his fixed purposes by flattery. His untimely death is a shock to his legion of friends and a distinct loss to his country.

I may not at this time attempt to detail his great service, but at a proper time I shall ask the Senate to set apart a day for memorial exercises, when fitting tribute may be paid his life, character, and distinguished public career.

Mr. President, I offer the resolutions which I send to the desk, and ask their adoption.

The PRESIDENT pro tempore. The Secretary will read the resolutions submitted by the Senator from Illinois.

The Assistant Secretary read the resolutions (S. Res. 370), as follows:

Resolved, That the Senate had heard with profound sorrow the announcement of the death of the Hon. JAMES R. MANN, late a Representative from the State of Illinois.

Resolved, That a committee of nine Senators be appointed by the Vice President to join the committee appointed on the part of the House of Representatives to attend the funeral of the deceased.

Resolved, That the Secretary communicate these resolutions to the House of Representatives and transmit a copy thereof to the family of the deceased.

Mr. LODGE. Mr. President, when the resolutions offered by the Senator from Illinois have been adopted I shall move the acceptance of the invitation of the House of Representatives that the Senate in a body attend the funeral of the late Representative MANN to-morrow at 2 o'clock.

The PRESIDENT pro tempore. The Chair is compelled to consider this proceeding as being by unanimous consent.

Mr. UNDERWOOD. Mr. President, I stated a moment ago that there is no objection to this proceeding being had by unanimous consent. We raise no question about it at all.

The PRESIDENT pro tempore. The question is on the adoption of the resolutions presented by the Senator from Illinois.

The resolutions were unanimously agreed to.

The PRESIDENT pro tempore appointed as the committee on the part of the Senate under the second resolution Mr. McKINLEY, Mr. BALL, Mr. CAMERON, Mr. GLASS, Mr. HARRELD, Mr. LENROOT, Mr. POMERENE, Mr. WATSON, and Mr. WILLIS.

The PRESIDENT pro tempore. The question is on the motion of the Senator from Massachusetts.

The motion was unanimously agreed to.

Mr. McKINLEY. Mr. President, as a further mark of respect to the memory of the late Representative MANN, I move that the Senate do now adjourn.

The motion was unanimously agreed to; and (at 12 o'clock and 25 minutes p. m.) the Senate adjourned until to-morrow, Saturday, December 2, 1922, at 12 o'clock meridian.

HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES.

FRIDAY, December 1, 1922.

The House met at 12 o'clock noon.

The Chaplain, Rev. James Shera Montgomery, D. D., offered the following prayer:

Our Father who art in heaven, wilt Thou hear us? Our hearts are sore and heavy, and there is no adequate speech for the deep emotions of the soul. Out of a strong right hand Thou hast taken the staff, and the left is cold and smitten. Next to his fireside altar this place was in his loving regard and solicitude. Here the associations of the years cluster and here he consecrated his powers with the sacrament of unstinted toil. A tower of strength is fallen and lies prostrate, and in this place affection has its way. Dry the tears that no other hand can touch and give comfort and hope to those who suffer. Bestow that peace that brings light when night would distress us, that fills the void of the grave and conquers death. At the last, for us may the Jordan be dried, the wilderness carpeted, and the way made as beautiful as the gardens of heaven. In the name of Jesus. Amen.

The Journal of the proceedings of Wednesday, November 29, was read and approved.

DEATH OF REPRESENTATIVE JAMES R. MANN.

Mr. MADDEN. Mr. Speaker, it becomes my painful duty to report the death of my colleague, Hon. JAMES R. MANN, a Representative from the State of Illinois, who died at his home in this city last night at 11 o'clock and 15 minutes p. m. after a short illness. It is needless to say that everybody in the House is shocked at the announcement of his death. In the death of Mr. MANN the Nation loses one of its most stalwart defenders. At a later date the Illinois delegation will ask that a day be set apart on which memorial services may be held in honor of our deceased colleague, at which time his life story and work on behalf of the Nation will be told. I offer the following resolutions, which I send to the Clerk's desk.
